

The 1st Infantry Division Artillery (DIVARTY) Command and Staff on March 19, 1991, after the conclusion of hostilities, standing by an Iraqi 122mm D-30 howitzer captured by the soldiers of Headquarters and Headquarters Battery (HHB) of the DIVARTY on March 2, 1991. The photo was taken west of the "Highway of Death" near oil-field fires in the vicinity of Ar Rawdatayn, Kuwait, approximately 25 kilometers south of Safwan, Iraq.

First Row (left to right): CPT Phil Thurston (Reconnaissance Survey Officer), MAJ Don Mathews (S-1), LTC Scott Lingamfelter (XO), COL Mike Dodson (DIVARTY Commander), MAJ Ed Cardenas (S-3), MAJ Barry Brooks (S-4). Second Row: MAJ Tom Conneran (Assistant S-3), *CPT Chris Hubbard (Assistant S-3), CPT Sandy Artman (S-2), CPT Ralph Nieves (Liaison Officer to 1st UK), CPT Bill Turner (Battle CPT-Day), *MAJ Charlie Wise (Assistant S-4), MAJ Jim Stoverink (Operations Duty Officer-Night), MAJ Mike Madden (Operations Duty Officer-Day). Third Row: 1LT Tim Bizoukas (Counterfire Officer) (atop cannon), *MAJ Rich Kirsch (Fire Direction Officer-Day), *MAJ Dave Denhal (Fire Direction Officer-Night), *MAJ Oscar Judd (Fire Direction Officer-Night). Shadow taking the photography: CPT Joe Willis (Chemical Officer). Not Pictured: CPT Cherie Wallace (Assistant S-2), CPT Tom Martin (Assistant Communications and Electronic Signal Officer), *MAJ Luis Rodriguez (Communications and Electronic Signal Officer). (*Personnel attached temporarily for duty [TDY] to 1st Infantry DIVARTY during the war.)

1st Infantry Division Artillery (DIVARTY) encampment with tents and foxholes in TAA ROOSEVELT (January 1991).

HMMWV (High Mobility Multi-Purpose Wheeled Vehicle), "Humvee," in forward assembly area (FAA) (February 1991).

B Battery 6th Field Artillery MLRS position in TAA Roosevelt (January 1991).

Armored Combat Earthmover (ACE) digging a survivability position for an M109A2 155mm howitzer of B Battery 1st Battalion, 5th Field Artillery (February 1991). (Courtesy of David Fowles)

B Battery 6th Field Artillery MLRS convoy from TAA Roosevelt to the FAA (February 1991).

Soldiers using an M-2 aiming circle to orient M109A2 155mm howitzer of B Battery 1st Battalion, 5th Field Artillery on the direction of fire (February 1991). (Courtesy of David Fowles)

1st Infantry Division Artillery (DIVARTY) Tactical Operations Center (TOC) position near Ar Rawdatayn, Kuwait, approximately 25 kilometers south of Safwan Iraq (March 1991).

Laundry Day at the 1st Infantry Division Artillery (DIVARTY) position near Ar Rawdatayn, Kuwait (March 1991).

1st Infantry Division Artillery (DIVARTY) Tactical Operations Center (TOC) position in FAA behind protective berm prior to preparation (February 1991).

1st Infantry Division Artillery (DIVARTY) Tactical Fire Direction System (TAC-FIRE) vehicles in convoy (February 1991).

1st Infantry Division Artillery (DIVARTY) mobile kitchen trailer (MKT) (February 1991).

LTC Scott Lingamfelter (DIVARTY XO) and MAJ Tom Conneran (DIVARTY Assistant S-3) removing chemical protective clothing (February 28, 1991). (Courtesy of Ed Cardenas)

LTC Scott Lingamfelter reunites with his family: (from right to left) nephew Evan, Shelley holding Paul, John in the center, and Amy in the foreground, July 6, 1991.

1st Infantry Division vehicles ready for loading on the Nosac Rover in Dammam, Saudi Arabia, June 8, 1991.

Big Red One Port Support Activity (PSA) loads an M2 Bradley Infantry Fighting Vehicle (IFV), June 8, 1991.

Big Red One Port Support Activity (PSA) lifts MILVANS (Military Container Vans) into the Ville de Havre, May 20, 1991.

1st Infantry Division Port Support Activity (PSA) Commander LTC Scott Lingamfelter, PSA XO MAJ Charlie Wise, and PSA Transportation Officer CPT Renee "The Hammer" Miller supervising the loading of the Nosac Rover (June 9, 1991).

Soldier approaching a “Wolf Burger” for a lunch break while working in the port of Dammam, Saudi Arabia (May 1991).

Soldiers from B Battery 6th Field Artillery MLRS observing a fire mission during artillery raids (February 17–23, 1991).

Close up of a Multiple Launch Rocket System (MLRS) rocket headed downrange during artillery raids (February 17–23, 1991).

M109A2 155mm howitzer firing on enemy positions (February 1991).

A pair of M109A2 155mm howitzers firing during artillery raids (February 17-23, 1991).

Howitzer from B Battery 1st Battalion, 5th Field Artillery firing on enemy positions (February 1991). (Courtesy of David Fowles)

Burning oil wells with destroyed Iraqi equipment in the foreground (February–March 1991).

Destroyed Iraqi supply truck (February 28, 1991). (Courtesy of Ed Cardenas)

Destroyed Iraqi tank in the vicinity of Objective Norfolk in Iraq (February 27, 1991).

Destroyed Iraqi howitzer and truck in the vicinity of the "Highway of Death" in eastern Kuwait (February 28, 1991).

Numerous destroyed Iraqi vehicles and equipment in the vicinity of the “Highway of Death” in eastern Kuwait as they attempted to escape (February 28, 1991).

Iraqi prisoners of war (POWs) captured and escorted by soldiers of the 1st Infantry Division (February 1991).